CAN A MAN
BUY A PAYING
FARM IN HAWAII?THE QUESTION PASSED UP TO THE PROMOTION COMMITTEE NOT VERY EASY TO ANSWER—SOME SPLENDID EVIDENCES OF PROMO-TION SUCCESS—A NEW KIND OF ADVERTISING OF HAWAII BE-ING PLANNED.The following is this week's report to the promotion committee by Acting Secretary Cooper:Honolulu, Nov. 18, 1909.
Chairman and Members of the Hawaii Promotion Committee:Gentlemen—The following extracts from a letter just received from a resident of Suvaemich, Wash., contains, in substance, the burden of a constantly increasing number of inquiries from all parts of the United States."Dear Sir:—I have been much interested in your booklet on Hawaii and I write to ask you if a man with small capital can get me any information about whether one can buy a small farm, say 20 acres. I mean land that is partly improved, suitable to raise fruit, cows and chickens. Let me know what good land can be bought for, and also if there is any opportunity to start in some small business, and what kind. Will you also send me a Honolulu Sunday paper? I will enclose ten cents and a stamped envelope addressed. Give me any other information you can in regard to what is required to start there."We have not only been receiving a great many letters like this, but many similar ones are being directed to the Governor's office, the U. S. Agricultural Experiment Station, the Territorial Land Office, and to private citizens and business firms. Many of these are being referred to this office for reply, and I certainly do not feel that the responsibility of replying to them is a light one. I mention this because I should appreciate having any suggestions from you or any other citizen interested.BRIGHT FOR TOURIST BUSINESS.
We have a very interesting letter by the last mail from our Secretary, Mr. Wood written from Shanghai, China. The letter deals largely with his observations in Japan, and is most encouraging. He says:"I sincerely believe that as a result of my observations I shall be able to offer suggestions that will tend to increase the effectiveness of our work throughout Japan materially, but will defer going into the matter until my return. Japan is anticipating a very good tourist season. The hotel men and merchants feel quite cheerful over the outlook. The United States contributes by far the largest proportion of their tourists, yet singular to say there is no systematic effort being made to build up this travel. The Welcome Society, a most excellent institution, is practically without funds and the parties directly interested do not even pretend to assist. Financially, conditions are unsatisfactory. I met several members of the Board of Governors of the Welcome Society, explained our line of work, and urged themto enter upon an aggressive campaign in an effort to turn some of the many millions now pouring annually into Europe, towards Japan. I told them that I was selfish in this as the result of their work could not but prove of benefit to Hawaii, inasmuch as we were in a position to catch a large percentage of the travel coming and going.
I feel assured that the 'stop over travel to Hawaii will increase materially right along. I had scarcely reached today (at the Palace Hotel) before half a dozen globe trotters were directed to me for information about Hawaii. The entire party will remain in the islands from three to four weeks."

TO ENTERTAIN VISITORS.

I believe that it will only be a short time until we shall be able to offer an added variety of attractions to tourists visiting Honolulu. Several citizens who have looked closely into the matter have assured me that Hawaii should prove one of the most attractive places in the world to the enthusiastic angler, and they are at work now to demonstrate this fact and to secure some photographs which may be used for advertising purposes. One gentleman who is working along this line, has visited the famous Catalina, California, fishing grounds, and he is confident that our waters far excel that place, not only in the regularity of the fishing season, but in the greater number of varieties of game fishes which we have available.There will also soon be a systematized effort made to organize fishing parties, tramping parties, etc. among the visitors in the city, thus preventing as much as possible persons from leaving the Territory with the impression that they have exhausted the possibilities of the islands without having been outside of Honolulu.

GOOD WORK IN LOS ANGELES.

Mrs. Headlee, our representative in Los Angeles, sends a very encouraging report in which she says:"I have had more inquiries thus far this season than the whole of last season. If this interest keeps up, the present inadequate steamship service will be still more apparent. I have received recently a letter from a Miss O'Neill, of Butte, Mont., who wishes to arrange an excursion to Hawaii, and wants specific directions. I have written her fully."In the magazine section of the Los Angeles Times, under date of October 31st appeared an excellent article on Honolulu and the island of Oahu by Automobile, over the signature of Grace Hortense Tower, who needs no introduction to island people. I am preparing an article for publication also."

Respectfully submitted,

WILL J. COOPER,

Acting Secretary.

PART SETTLEMENT.

A. W. T. Bottomley, trustee of the Metropolitan Meat Company, will tomorrow pay to the stockholders of the old concern $30 per share for the stock held by them. This is only a partial distribution of assets of the defunct corporation, the remaining payments so be made later on.

PROMOTION COMMITTEE.

The Hawaii Promotion Committee will hold a meeting this afternoon, beginning at 3:30 o'clock. Acting Secretary Cooper has a large batch of routine matter to present, but there seems to be nothing of a very important character in sight.

CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL
OPENINGThere will be a double ceremony inaugurating the Children's Hospital on Kuakini road the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day. The two features of a house warming and a corner stone laying will be carried out.Ceremonies will start at 3 o'clock and conclude in ample time for all who attend to return to their respective places of abode for the Thanksgiving dinner.The building is erected the question naturally arises as to how and where the corner stone is to be laid. It will be placed underneath the buttress to the main steps.The public will be invited. It is hoped that Hon. Albert S. Wilcox, who donated the money to erect the building, will say something to the assembly. Judge Dole and perhaps Alonzo Garley will have remarks to offer. Possibly also some doctor will have a word to say.Refreshments will be served by a committee of ladies.
Miss Dewar, late of the Palama Hospital, has been appointed by the board of governors as managing nurse of the Children's Hospital.Judge Dole is president of the board, and the house committee consists of James F. Morgan, W. O.
Smith and A. Garley.Shriners will come out in their annual motley parade Saturday afternoon. The Board of Supervisors at last meeting voted permission for the fire department to participate.

HALEIWA GOLF.

There is to be golf galore at Haleiwa on Thanksgiving day and unusual preparations are being made for the dinner to be served that day.
It is said a number of owners of automobiles will motor out to the hotel and come in during the evening in the moonlight, for the moon will be doing business that night. The drive to Haleiwa is becoming more popular
